COUNTRY Czechoslovakia

SUBJECT State Security (StB) and National Security Corps (SNB) Units

DATE OF INFO.

PLACE
ACQUIRED

1. The StB (Státní bezpečnost) had regional headquarters in all large towns of the CSR, district headquarters in all cities. There were no StB offices in villages but all of them had many StB agents and informers. The SNB (Sbor národní bezpečnosti) also had regional headquarters in all large towns of the CSR, frequently located in the same buildings as the StB; it had district headquarters in all cities. In contrast to the StB, the SNB had substations in all villages with a population of over one thousand people.

2. The StB and SNB Headquarters in Bohemia were located as follows:

5.

6. After 31 Dec 50 all units of UTVAR 9600 (SNB Border Troops) were reorganized. Most of the personnel were transferred to the newly activated PS and promoted. About three per cent were men who had been in the SNB since 1945 and were not considered to be true Communists. They were not entrusted with border duty, but were permitted to remain in the SNB as policemen.

25X1

The following is the O/B for SNB Border Guard Units up to 31 Dec 50:
